July 27 -Coteau First Dinner Theatre – “Mother Runs the Family”

A carefully, hand-picked group of actors, under the direction of The Langham Theatrical Company's coordinator, Sela Balzer, will be presenting a one-act play, a comedy, titled Mother Runs The Family. In addition to that the group will also perform a series of short comedy sketches guaranteed to bring out the good ole belly laughs.

Synopsis - Mother Runs The Family is a story of a rather overbearing wife and mother who has decided the family will spend their vacation at Banff National Park this year. She has no problem ignoring the objections and pleas of her husband and children who wish to go elsewhere. Since mother runs the family, the family will spend their vacation at Banff. Reluctantly dad and the kids resign themselves to another disappointing summer vacation, but wait, grandmother has an idea that may just save the day.

Truly a hilarious account of how mother runs the family, or does she? Please join us for an exquisite dinner which accompanies our show. If you are looking for an evening of pleasurable dinning with a wide range of culinary delights, you will enjoy our dinner prepared by Creative Catering.

Advance tickets with Wendy Richards – wrichards@cuelenaere.com Cost $20.00 per person–
Dinner at 5 pm/Show 7 pm – Plan to attend so you won't be disappointed.
